

papers are solicited to the following streams (work-in-progress papers are also welcome):

Art & Cyberspace, chair: Jana Horáková, indicative topics: (new) media works of art as subjects of historiography; (new) media works of art and issues concerning their archiving; strategies of documentation, preservation, and mediation of (new) media works of art; The Art of COVID-19: migration of art into the cyberspace in the age of the coronavirus pandemics; representations of (corona)virus and/or the pandemics by means of art, new media art and sci-art.

Law: Cybersecurity, Cyberwarfare, chair: Václav Stupka, indicative topics: cyber terrorism; cyber warfare; use of force on-line; active countermeasures; response teams; ius ad bellum/ius in bello; the NIS Directive; Cybersecurity Package.

Law: Cybercrime, Digital Evidence, chair: Aleš Završník, indicative topics: criminal procedure issues, e.g. data retention and data preservation; real-time collection; interception; European Investigation Order; European Production and Preservation Orders; digital forensics; cybercrimes, e.g. phishing; ransomware; cybercrime agencies; responding to and preventing cybercrime; jurisdictional issues in cybercrime; impacts of COVID-19 on cybercrime e.g. new trends; zoombombing.

Law: eCommerce, Digital Single Market, chair: Zolt Balogh, indicative topics: information society services; sharing economy; search engines; platforms; electronic and virtual currencies; payment and micropayment systems; eCommerce taxation; AML and CTF measures.

Law: Government 2.0, chairs: Ludwig Gramlich, Pavel Loutocký, indicative topics: open government; on-line public procurement; on-line legal counselling; e-identity and eIDAS; mobile government; e-participation vs e-democracy; social media in public sector; Internet governance; participatory governance.

Legal Informatics, chairs: Erich Schweighofer, Jakub Harašta, indicative topics: AI in law, human-computer interfaces; on-line promulgation of law; automated processing of case-law; new search techniques; legal data analysis; AI for justice; smart contracts; automation of law.

Law: Intellectual Property On-Line, chairs: Andreas Wiebe, Matěj Myška, indicative topics: copyright; common copyright title; digital rights management; open source; open access; exceptions and limitations to IP; fair use; fair dealing; protection of software; licensing; P2P networks; trademarks on-line; collective management of copyright; trademarks in auction and search servers; TDM and limitations; protection of raw data; protection of databases; upload filters.

International Internet Law, chair: Dan Svantesson, indicative topics: public international law and the Internet; private international law and the Internet, extraterritoriality online; Brussels I, Rome I, Rome II and the Internet; cross-border on-line defamation; place of damage; electronic choice of law and choice of forum; international on-line arbitration; cross-border consumer protection; GDPR Art. 3, law enforcement cross-border access to data.

Law: Privacy and Personal Data, chairs: Jakub Míšek, Bettina Bacher, indicative topics: GDPR (incl. national implementations); e-regulation; anonymizers; surveillance; privacy-by-design; right to be forgotten; counter-surveillance; DPIA; international data transfers; contact tracing; privacy and ethics.

New Media and Politics, chairs: Monika Metyková, Alena Macková, indicative topics: online political communication; new media in elections and campaigns; new media, democracy and civic participation; hacktivism; new media and political polarization; online public spheres; new media and political mobilization.

Internet and Society, chairs: Kristian Daneback, Jakub Macek, indicative topics: new media in everyday lives; digital divide; communities in cyberspace; anthropology of cyberspace; gender and Internet; new media and social services; online media and transformation of journalism; new media and media audiences; virtual worlds.

Psychology of Cyberspace, chairs: David Šmahel, Hana Macháčková, indicative topics: impact of the Internet use on individuals and family; Internet addiction; online identities; counseling and therapy online; Internet, sexuality and intimacy; human personality online; e-learning; online gaming; cyberbullying; online victimization; technology and health; online risks and opportunities; security from user perspectives.

"State of exception", COVID style. Legal theory & IT implementation, chairs: Herbert Hrachovec, Andreas Kirchner, indicative topics: Carl Schmitt's legacy; emergency jurisdiction; libertarian protests; behavioral control (apps, databases); human rights, biopolitical interventions, computer-based social prognosis, expiry date systems.

Artificial Intelligence in Financial Services (special track), chair: Alex Ivančo, Joseph Lee

Digital technologies in education: research and visions (special track), chair: Libor Juhaňák, Jiří Zounek

Medical Data (special track), chair: Walter Hötendorfer

Manipulative Techniques On-Line (special track), chair: Miroslav Mareš

ODR Track: How to Educate about ODR Skills (special online track), chairs: Zbyněk Loebel, Alberto Elisavetsky, Pavel Loutocký

Usable Security and Privacy (special track), chairs: Lydia Kraus, Vashek Matyáš

full written papers are not mandatory, but are welcome by the following associated peer-reviewed journals:

Masaryk University Journal of Law and Technology, print and on-line, listed in SCOPUS, EBSCO, Hein Online, ERIH PLUS

Cyberpsychology, on-line, listed in WoS, SCOPUS, EBSCO, ERIH PLUS, Directory of OA Journals

Important dates

Abstract submission deadline:	31 July 2021
Notice on abstract acceptance deadline:	31 August 2021
Extended abstracts deadline:	15 November (extended abstracts apply in some streams and tracks pursuant to the decision of respective Chairs)
Conference registration:	1 July – 20 November 2021
Conference dates:	26 – 27 November 2021

Abstract formal requirements

Range:	max. 1.500 characters incl. spaces
Submission:	on-line at www.cyberspace.muni.cz

Paper formal requirements and submission

Papers published in MUJLT

Papers published in Cyberpsychology

Conference fees

full pass – speakers:	2190 CZK (approx. 90 EUR)
full pass – delegates:	2490 CZK (approx. 100 EUR)
student pass:	free

Contacts

Conference website: <http://cyberspace.muni.cz>
Central conference e-mail address: cyberspace@law.muni.cz
Mailing address: Masaryk University, Faculty of Law
Institute of Law and Technology
Veveří 70
611 80 Brno
Czech Republic

Officials

General Chair	Radim Polčák
Deputy Chairs	Jakub Míšek, David Šmahel
Hospitality Chair	Matěj Myška
Financial Chair	Jakub Harašta
Programme Chair	Pavel Loutocký
Head of Staff	Veronika Žolnerčíková
Technology Officer	Václav Stupka