
papers are solicited to the following streams (work-in-progress papers are also welcome):

Law: Cybersecurity, Cyberwarfare, chair: Václav Stupka, indicative topics: cyber terrorism; cyber warfare; use of force on-line; active countermeasures; response teams; ius ad bellum/ius in bello; the NIS Directive; Cybersecurity Package; usable security.

Law: Cybercrime, Digital Evidence, chair: Aleš Završník, indicative topics: criminal procedure issues, e.g. data retention and data preservation; real-time collection; interception; European Investigation Order; European Production and Preservation Orders; digital forensics; cybercrimes, e.g. phishing; ransomware; cybercrime agencies; responding to and preventing cybercrime; jurisdictional issues in cybercrime; impacts of COVID-19 on cybercrime e.g. new trends; zoombombing.

Law: eCommerce, Digital Single Market, chair: Eva Martinicová, Jan Hospes, indicative topics: digital services; information society services; sharing economy; search engines; platforms; electronic and virtual currencies; payment and micropayment systems; eCommerce taxation; AML and CTF measures; DSA; DMA.

Law: Government 2.0, eJustice, chair: Pavel Loutocký, indicative topics: e-identity; electronic signatures; eIDAS; electronic documents; e-archivation; identity management; mobile government; Internet governance; participatory governance; eJustice, automatization of processes and decisions; e-participation; e-voting; digital public services; AI driven solutions and assistance.

Legal Informatics, chairs: Erich Schweighofer, Jakub Harašta, indicative topics: AI in law and legal education, human-computer interfaces; on-line promulgation of law; automated processing of case-law; new search techniques; legal data analysis; AI for justice; smart contracts; automation of law.

Law: Intellectual Property On-Line, chairs: Andreas Wiebe, Matěj Myška, indicative topics: online platforms and copyright enforcement; F/OSS; OA; limits of IP protection; software protection (copyright, patent); IP overlaps online; data and databases protection; data rights, access rights, data governance; trademarks use online; generative AI as challenge for IP; AI-generated/AI-assisted outputs and IP; IP aspects of machine learning

International Internet Law, chair: Dan Svantesson, indicative topics: public international law and the Internet; private international law and the Internet, extraterritoriality online; Brussels I, Rome I, Rome II and the Internet; cross-border on-line defamation; place of damage; electronic choice of law and choice of forum; international on-line arbitration; cross-border consumer protection; GDPR Art. 3, law enforcement cross-border access to data.

Law: Privacy and Personal Data, chairs: Jakub Míšek, Bettina Bacher, indicative topics: GDPR (incl. national implementations); e-regulation; anonymizers; surveillance; privacy-by-design; right to be forgotten; counter-surveillance; DPIA; international data transfers; contact tracing; data processing in the context of AI technology; privacy and ethics.

Law: eHealth and New Technologies in Healthcare, chair: Michal Koščík, indicative topics:

telemedicine; health apps; AI in healthcare; software and AI as a medical device; digital technologies in pandemic surveillance; European health data space; privacy and security of health related data; ethical aspects of digital technologies in healthcare; medical data (processing, protection).

New Media and Politics, chairs: Monika Metyková, Alena Macková, indicative topics: online political communication; new media in elections and campaigns; new media, democracy and civic participation; hacktivism; new media and political polarization; online public spheres; new media and political mobilization.

Internet and Society, chair: Jakub Macek, indicative topics: new media in everyday lives; digital divide; communities in cyberspace; anthropology of cyberspace; gender and Internet; new media and social services; online media and transformation of journalism; new media and media audiences; virtual worlds.

Psychology of Cyberspace, chairs: David Šmahel, Hana Macháčková, indicative topics: impact of the ICT use on individuals and family; internet addiction; online identities; ICT, sexuality and intimacy; e-learning; online gaming; cyberbullying and cyberhate; online victimization; technology and health; mHealth apps; online risks and opportunities; security from user perspectives; parental mediation of ICT use; digital skills; digital literacy; impact of ICT on wellbeing; AI and ICT usage.

AI Technologies: generative, destructive, chairs: Herbert Hrachovec, Andreas Kirchner, indicative topics: writing and painting by algorithms; use and abuse of chatbots; the role of civil society in AI policies; mindless intelligence: calculations vs. decision making; from plagiarism to responsive AI; chatbot precursors: decision support in aviation, autonomous CV pre-screening; trust in AI output.

ODR Special Track 2023: Designing and Implementing Digital Courts in the EU, chair: Zbyněk Loebel

Quantum special track: Regulating quantum technologies and understanding their constructive and disruptive potential, chair: Radim Polčák

Data in Financial Services - Open Finance (special track), chair: Alex Ivančo, Joseph Lee

AI special track: Transforming Information Literacy in the Context of Generative AI Systems: From Prompt Design to Information Evaluation, chair: Petr Škyřík, Michal Černý

Research Data and Open Source: Interoperability and Security (special track), chair: Jiří Marek, indicative topics: interoperability (Interoperable Europe Act), cross-border digital services in EU, Smart Cities/Smart Regions data, open data, research data, European data strategy, cybersecurity for open source technologies, responsible data handling, open science, open source, EOSC, EHDS, sharing economy, Re-use system management.

full papers are not mandatory, but are welcome by the following associated peer-reviewed journals:

Masaryk University Journal of Law and Technology, print and on-line, listed in SCOPUS (Q2), EBSCO, Hein Online, ERIH PLUS

Cyberpsychology, on-line, listed in WoS (Q2), SCOPUS, EBSCO, ERIH PLUS, Directory of OA Journals

Important dates

| | |
|---|--|
| Abstract submission deadline: | 31 July |
| Notice on abstract acceptance deadline: | 31 August |
| Extended abstracts deadline: | 15 November (extended abstracts may be expected in some streams and tracks) |
| Conference registration: | 1 July – 18 November (later registrations are possible on-site as last-minute) |
| Conference dates: | 24 – 25 November |

Abstract formal requirements

Range: max. 1.500 characters incl. spaces

Submission: through Microsoft CMT (instructions on the submissions can be found here)

Paper formal requirements and submission

Papers published in MUJLT

Papers published in Cyberpsychology

Conference fees

full pass – general admission: 3300 CZK (approx. 140 EUR)

full pass – speakers: 2900 CZK (approx. 125 EUR)

student pass: free (programme only) or 1490 CZK with catering (approx. 65 EUR) dinner fee (Saturday dinner – not included in the above conference passes) – 690 CZK (approx. 29 EUR)

last-minute (on-site) registration: 3590 (approx. 150 EUR)

last-minute dinner fee – 850 CZK (approx. 35 EUR)

Contacts

Conference website: <http://cyberspace.muni.cz>

Central conference e-mail address: cyberspace@law.muni.cz

Mailing address: Masaryk University, Faculty of Law
Institute of Law and Technology
Veveří 70
611 80 Brno
Czech Republic

Officials

| | |
|--------------------|------------------------------|
| General Chair | Radim Polčák |
| Deputy Chairs | Jakub Míšek, David Šmahel |
| Hospitality Chair | Matěj Myška |
| Financial Chair | Jakub Harašta |
| Programme Chair | Pavel Loutocký |
| Head of Staff | Veronika Příbaň Žolnerčíková |
| Technology Officer | Václav Stupka |

